Meet the 2018-19 Pennsylvania FFA State Officer Team

Jenna Harnish, President

Serving as state president, Jenna Harnish is the daughter of Eric and Michelle Harnish. Hailing from the Athens FFA Chapter, she first got involved in FFA because her dad encouraged her to give it a try, believing she would find something within that she would enjoy. She enjoyed public speaking, specifically senior prepared, showing beef cattle and serving as the 2017-2018 Bradford County Dairy Princess. Next fall, Jenna will be attending Penn State, majoring in agricultural science, or another ag related degree.

Jacob Kinzer, Vice President

Serving as state vice president, Jacob Kinzer is the son of Andy and Dixie Kinzer. A member of East Juniata FFA Chapter, he joined FFA at the recommendation of his older brother and quickly found his own home within. Jacob enjoyed extemporaneous speaking, basketball, baseball and golf, and is an Eagle Scout of Boy Scout Troop 169. After state office, Jacob plans on attending Elizabethtown College for environmental science.

Morgan Bear, Secretary

Serving as state secretary, Morgan Bear is the daughter of Jackie and the late Tim Bear and hails from the Big Spring FFA Chapter. Following the advice of her older brother, Morgan joined FFA and hasn't looked back since. While in high school, Morgan enjoyed public speaking, gymnastics and showing livestock. Morgan plans on attending Penn State for agricultural and Extension education to continue her passion for agricultural education.

Abigail Yoder, Treasurer

Serving as state treasurer, Abigail Yoder is the daughter of Richard and Deanna Yoder. Serving Pennsylvania and representing the Central Columbia FFA Chapter, Abigail joined FFA because of a interest for agriculture and the desire to follow in the footsteps of her older sister. Abigail enjoys prepared public speaking, softball and fishing. Abigail will attend Bloomsburg University before transferring to Penn State and majoring in agricultural and Extension education after her year as a state officer.

Samuel Loy, Reporter

Serving as state reporter, Samuel Loy is the son of Ted and Robin Loy, and is a graduate of the Greenwood FFA Chapter. Samuel has postponed his sophomore year at Penn State to serve as a state officer. He first joined FFA at the persuasion of his ag teachers and enjoyed parliamentary procedure, soccer and track and field, and peer helpers in high school. After this year, Samuel plans on returning to Penn State, to pursue an agricultural degree.

Roarke Miller, Sentinel

Serving as state sentinel, Roarke Miller is the son of Earnest Miller and Leigh Hitz-Miller. Hailing from the Little Dutchmen FFA Chapter, Roarke was inspired to join FFA by his chapter's senior officers and their passion for agriculture. Roarke enjoys showing beef cattle, golfing, and spending time with his friends, and plans on pursuing his passion for agriculture by attending Penn State, majoring in agribusiness management.

Millena Bashore, Chaplain

Serving as America's only state chaplain, Millena Bashore is the daughter of Robert and Sherry Bashore, and is a member of the Northern Lebanon FFA Chapter. Millena joined FFA so that she could take advantage of all the opportunities, and so that she could have her own voice. Millena enjoys dairy cattle, line dancing, baking and cooking. Millena plans on attending college to pursue a degree in dairy and animal sciences with an agriculture business minor.
