Pre-State LDE Expectations

- Students must qualify at the Regional Level to compete in the State Prepared Public Speaking LDE.
- Students are encouraged to have speeches memorized.
- By May 1, all manuscripts must be uploaded to the Google Form provided <https://forms.gle/JfcasHB4HDC1cBDq7>
- All speech manuscripts must be in PDF format, or they will NOT be able to be uploaded to the Google Form.
- Manuscripts turned in after May 1st will receive a 20-point deduction on the manuscript score card. All manuscripts received after May 15th will receive a zero on the manuscript score card.
- Senior Prepared Public Speaking is a one-day event as of 2023, members may be registered for an additional two-day CDE event or leadership workshop for Wednesday. Please let the chair of this event know upon arrival that you are participating in another CDE.

CDE Changes from Previous Years?

- Each region may submit up to four prepared speech participants. Participants could have competed in the Sr. Prepared Speech or Conservation Speech categories at the Regional Level. Each region is responsible for determining regional selection.
- Each region may submit to the Google Form an alternate speech participant. This participant will not be allowed to participate at the State Convention unless a qualified speaker drops from the contest.
- Final round will now start at 5:30 p.m. on Tuesday in a location TBD.

Contest Procedures

Regional Qualification:

4. Each region may submit up to four prepared speech participants. Participants could have competed in the Sr. Prepared Speech or Conservation Speech categories at the Regional Level. Each region is responsible for determining regional selection.
5. Each region may submit to the Google Form an alternate speech participant. This participant will not be allowed to participate at the State Convention unless a qualified speaker drops from the contest.

Manuscripts:

1. All 16 state-level manuscripts will be judged by one qualified judge prior to activities week, and those scores will be provided to judges as each speaker presents their speech.
2. The National FFA's manuscript rubric posted on the paffa.org website will be used.
3. Please refer to the National FFA for additional manuscript guidelines.
4. The cover page must contain the following information: Speech Title, Participant's Name, Chapter, Region, State, and Year. Each piece of information should appear on a separate line on the cover page. Statement of Authenticity is not required for the State LDE.
5. Use of a running header that includes a partial speech title is encouraged, but not required.

Presentation:

1. Each participant will be evaluated by at least two judges using the National FFA scoring rubric (2026).
2. Each speaker may receive judge feedback forms at the conclusion of the contest.
3. The winner of the Final Round will compete at The National FFA Convention, and 2nd place goes to The Big E. The top three places receive gold certificates.
